Camden pilots new leadership course

Eight learners set to build middle management skills

9 December 2011 – Crêchendo, one of the UK's most respected training organisations within the Early Years, Childcare and Playwork sectors, is pleased to announce that its first course for Leadership & Management in Adult Health and Social Care commences in January.

Over the next 14 months, eight learners will build a wide range of middle management skills to gain the comprehensive leadership and management knowledge required at this level.
